Topeka, Kansas, April 27, 1914
The Press Bureau is constrained to call attention to the fact that the Capper publications and the mythical organization which signs itself "Republican State Central Committee" has never been able to stick to any one statement in the matter of state expenditures.

It changes its figures almost every week to suit the occasion.

First they had it that the Hodges administration was costing the state something like $800, 000 more than the Stubbs administration. Then they reduced their figures to $500,000.00. Now they have reduced their figures to something like $11,000.00 a year.
Of course these figures are always based upon a garbled statement of facts. The absurdity of the figures given out will appear to any thinking man who will just a moment consider things that are admitted to be true and not disputed by any one.

It is admitted by every one, for example, that the Stubbs administration not only used the entire revenues of the year 1912, but took $337,000 out of the revenues of 1913 to pay the running expenses of the state and then left a deficit of $115,000.00. It is also undisputed that the Hodges administration, although it deprived itself of an income of at least $250,000 by the repeal of the inheritance tax and so did not have as great a revenue as did the Stubbs administration, will close the fiscal year on July 1st, without any deficit and will in addition have put in operation the new Insane Hospital at Larned, the new Tuberculosis Sanitarium at Norton; have completed the new Memorial Building at an expense of $175,000 and set aside $160,000 to apply on the state debt.

These things being true, will some one kindly point out to us how it would be possible for the Hodges administration to have spent as much money as the Stubbs administration, without running the state in debt—and this Governor Hodges has not done and no one will say he has.
When any one tells you that the Hodges administration has spent more money than the Stubbs administration, just cite these facts and ask them to figure it out for us.

Speaking of Morgan's candidacy reminds us of the old days when the offices of State Printer and State Treasurer were regarded as grafts. In those days the State Printer and State Treasurer always made up the deficit in the Treasury of the Republican State Central Committee at the end of the campaign. Those good old days are gone and in order to insure against their return, it might be just as well to leave the men who profited by them—at home.
